Good morning church,

We hope you are staying warm on this cool Sunday morning!

I pray that you are staying healthy as we continue through the recovery phase of a national shutdown. Everyone is doing a wonderful job keeping yourselves and each other safe, so well done.

There has been no news, that I am aware of, which addresses religious gatherings. However, the leadership team will send out an update regarding group gatherings.

Today we will again approach the subject of revival. It is my strong desire and prayer that God will pour out His Spirit on our church, but for Him to do so, there are some things that we must do.

Finally, just this morning I received a daily bible verse that assured me that we are going in the right direction. Let me share that with you.

Luke 9:23–24 (ESV)

²³ And he said to all, “If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. ²⁴ For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it.

This is a powerful comment that places a laser sharp focus on how to follow Jesus. The question is, do we want to follow Him? If so, there are some things that are necessary and this morning we will talk about two of them.

He has risen!
