

Worship!

Good morning church family,

Julie and I hope you have had a great week!

Today, I will talk about worship! As I said in the video, I do that with fear and trembling because I know there are so many differing opinions about worship. But the truth is when you stand on bible truth there is no need to fear anyone but God himself since he was the author of the bible.

So today, let's jump into worship and I want to encourage you to take a moment and offer God the praise and worship he deserves during the song at the end and throughout the day!

He is Worthy!
