

Path to Joy!

Good morning everyone,

Today we will return to John 15, and we will learn how to have the true joy that Jesus gives. You may be surprised that his view of joy is not the same as ours. But I'll let him explain.

I have also included some links to what's going on in Israel for those who are interested.

Have a good morning,

Pastor Tony

This link is from a couple of men who are Christian, Jews that were doing videos in Israel when the attacks started. They have since returned to the US.
